Timothy Joins Paul and Silas

16 Then he went on to Derbe, then to Lystra. A follower named Timothy lived there, whose Jewish mother was a follower of the Lord, but whose father was a Greek.

<sup>3</sup> And Paul wanted to take him along with him. So he had him circumcised, because all the Jews living in those areas knew that his father was a Greek.

<sup>4</sup> As they went from city to city, they delivered to each church a copy of the decisions the apostles and elders had arrived at in Jerusalem, which the people were to obey.

<sup>5</sup> As a result, the churches were each strengthened in the faith, and they increased in number every day.

The Macedonian Call

<sup>6</sup>Then, because they were forbidden by the Holy Spirit to preach the message in the province of Asia* at that time, they traveled through Phrygia and Galatia, and then on to the region of Mysia.

Acts 16:6 – “The Province of Asia*” Which is now western Turkey.

<sup>7</sup>They tried to go into the province of Bithynia from there, but the Spirit wouldn't let them go there either.

<sup>8</sup>So they traveled through Mysia, and went down to the city of Troas.

<sup>9</sup>One night there, Paul saw a vision of a man from northern Greece* standing and pleading with him, “Come over into northern Greece and help us!”

Acts 16:9 – “Northern Greece*” i.e. Macedonia.

<sup>10</sup>Immediately after Paul saw that vision, we got ready to go to northern Greece. We were sure the Lord had called us to tell them the Great News.

Lesson 43 - Lydia's Conversion in Philippi - Acts 16:11-15

Lydia's Conversion in Philippi

<sup>11</sup>So we took passage on a boat at Troas, and sailed straight across to Samothrace. The next day we arrived at Neapolis.

<sup>12</sup>From there we went to Philippi, a Roman colony and the leading city in that part of northern Greece. We stayed there several days.

<sup>13</sup>On the Sabbath we went outside the city to the river, where it was customary to have a prayer meeting. There we sat down and talked to the women who had gathered.

<sup>14</sup>One woman who listened to us there was Lydia, from the city of Thyatira, who sold expensive purple cloth. She sincerely worshiped God. And the Lord so opened her heart to what Paul was saying that she responded.

<sup>15</sup>After she and her entire household were baptized, she begged us, "If you are convinced that I am truly faithful to the Lord, come and stay at my house." She insisted that we do so, and so we did.

Lesson 44 - Paul and Silas in Prison - Acts 16:16-40

Paul and Silas in Jail

<sup>16</sup>One day as we were on our way to prayer, a slave girl, possessed by an evil spirit claiming to predict the future, met us. Her fortune telling made her owners a good deal of money.

<sup>17</sup>She followed Paul and the rest of us, and kept shouting, "These men are bond-servants of the Most High God. They are telling us how to be saved."

<sup>18</sup>She kept this up for many days. But finally Paul, becoming greatly annoyed, turned around and said to the spirit, "I command you in the name of Jesus Christ, come out of her!" And instantly* it left her.

Acts 16:18 – "Instantly*" Literally that very hour. This is an idiom Luke uses to mean instantly, as can be seen by comparing Acts 9:18 and 22:13.

<sup>19</sup>But when her owners realized that their means of making money through her was gone, they grabbed hold of Paul and Silas and dragged them into court.

<sup>20</sup>When they came before the judges, they charged, "Here are some Jews who are continually causing trouble in our city.

<sup>21</sup>"They are teaching the people to do things that are unlawful for us Romans to accept or practice!"

<sup>22</sup>Then the whole crowd there joined in the attack against them, and finally the judges themselves tore off the robes of Paul and Silas and ordered that they be beaten with rods.

<sup>23</sup>After being badly beaten and having their backs covered with stripes, they were thrown in jail. The jailer was then ordered to make sure they were locked up securely.

<sup>24</sup>Upon receiving such an order, the jailer threw them into the inner cell and chained their feet between heavy blocks of wood.

<sup>25</sup>About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns of praise to God, while the other prisoners listened.

26 Suddenly there was a great earthquake that shook the jail to its very foundations. Immediately all the doors flew open, and the shackles on all the prisoners fell off.

27 When the jailer woke up and saw the jail doors open, he pulled out his sword and was about to kill himself because he thought the prisoners had escaped.

28 But Paul shouted, “Don’t harm yourself! We’re all here!”

29 After calling for torches, the jailer ran in and fell down trembling before Paul and Silas.

30 After bringing them out of the jail he said, “O Sirs, what must I do to be saved?”

31 They replied, “Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved.* This is also true for everyone in your household.”

Acts 16:31 – “Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved.*” “Believe is the Greek word “pisteuo” and means to place confidence in, to trust. Jesus as Lord means ruler, one you must surrender yourself to. Jesus means Savior. You must believe that He died on the cross because of your sins, so that He might save you. Christ, or Messiah mean the same. Messiah is the Hebrew word, and Christ is the Greek form of the same word. The name Christ means the anointed One, the One to whom God the Father has given all power and authority, the King. According to verse 32, Paul and Silas no doubt explained all this and much more to the jailer and his family.

32 Then they told him and everyone in his home about the Lord.

33 That very hour, in the middle of the night, the jailer took them where he could wash their cuts and bruises. Then he and everyone in his home were immediately baptized.

34 After that, he brought them into his house and served them a meal. All the while he, and his entire household were rejoicing in what they now had come to believe about God.

35 When it was daylight, the authorities sent police to the jailer with the order, “Let those men go.”

36 So the jailer reported this to Paul, saying, “The authorities have sent word that I’m to release you. So you may leave now and go on your way in peace.”

37 “No, we’re not leaving!” Paul told the police. “Do they think they can condemn, publicly whip, and throw Roman citizens into jail without giving them a fair trial? And now they wish to have us leave jail secretly! Let them come themselves and talk to us about leaving.”

38 When the police reported this to the judges—that they were Roman citizens—they became alarmed.

39 So they came and released them and told them how extremely sorry they were. Then they asked them to please leave town.

<sup>40</sup>But when they left the jail, they went to Lydia's house. There they met with the Lord's followers and encouraged and advised them. Then they left.
